

FAIRSING VINEYARD

2016 Chardonnay

There's a fresh array of very ripe and vibrant fruit on offer here. Bright, ripe lemon and peach aromas and flavors lead to a fresh and vibrant palate with plenty of subtly creamy, lightly spicy and nutty flavors at the finish. Drink now.

2016 Pinot noir Sullivan

This is a cut above the rest, in terms of quality, with very attractively ripe and fresh red-cherry and red-plum aromas, leading to a plush and supple palate that carries a considerable array of supple, long and silky tannins. Excellent depth here. Drink or hold.

2016 Pinot noir Dardis

Attractive, ripe cherry and boysenberry aromas here with hints of raspberries in a fresh, appealing mode. The palate has an array of fine, grainy tannins that carry a very bright, upbeat and approachable layer of ripe, red cherry-berry flavor. Drink now.

2016 Pinot noir Fairsing

There's freshness to this wine, amid deep black cherries that make a fully ripe impression. This is nicely judged. The palate is supple and suave with very velvety and alluring texture. Drink now.

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

Senior Editor, Nick Stock
November 30, 2018