VINTAGE

Cool and wet weather thru April resulted in a slow start to the 2023 growing season.

Our weather heated up significantly in April followed by budbreak on May 3. Grape shoot growth was rapid, and bloom occurred on June 12. We observed color change or verásion in mid-August.

On August 31, after 112 days without precipitation, we receive a welcome and replenishing rain. Harvest began September 13 under sunny skies and yielded consistently beautiful fruit for our Pinot noir program.

This combination of Dijon 115, Dijon 667, Wadenswil, and Pommard selections was barrel fermented 10 months in 17% new French oak.

The wine was bottled on August 22, 2024 with a final alcohol of 14.1%.
